

A purple cow?

Throughout the school year, the Art Club could very often be seen painting posters, decorating windows, or creating various forms of imaginative art.

So frequently did the display case enhance the school building with a small oasis of beauty.

Their main concern of the year was the Art Show, held in conjunction with the Spring Concert. Paintings, crewel works, and ceramics were highlighted.

The Art Club was a stimulus and an outlet for the artistically-talented youngster.
