

"Oh, we've got trouble! Right here in River City!" was the cry of the townspeople in MUSIC MAN. Some of the cast in this scene were: Diane Evans, Terry Lents, Eric Suther-lin, Richard Roe, Cindy Goff, Hal Wendling, Darla Goode, David Ardelean, Jeretta Baker, Mike Reed, Toni Etcheson, Jenny Summers and Jeff Sanders.

All actors on stage!

"Curtain going up!"

The curtain rose on the first 1969-70 Thespian production CHARLIE'S AUNT, a Victorian comedy.

"The bus for the speech contest will be leaving at 4:30 a.m., Saturday."

Monticello, Danville, Indiana State were some of the many destinations of the North Putnam speech team.

These early risers and verbose speakers brought honor to the school. They won second place at the sectional speech meet and obtained two alternate places for the state speech contest.

"All aboard for River City!"

The attentive audience boarded the train for River City, Iowa, with the actors of THE MUSIC MAN. Sets, lighting, music, costumes, and acting ability captured the audience's attention and held it throughout the play's duration.
