

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Roman way of life

The Junior Classical League encouraged among young people an interest in and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature and art of ancient Greece and Rome, and gave them some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity. It provided an opportunity for students to participate in extracurricular activities and to promote the classics.

The high point of the year for the JCL members was the Roman Banquet in the Spring. The theme of the banquet was "Picnic in the Forum".

Initiates of JCL served as slaves for fullfledged members.

Nineteen club members attended the state convention at Ball State University.

Officers were Mike White, David Ardelean, Donna Fordice, Jeff Sanders and Carol Hostetter.

The slaves were C. Davis, R. Rooker, B. Cox, J. Steele, L. Robinson, J. Summers, T. Etcheson.

Many of our JCL members who attended the Roman Banquet enjoyed an evening of food and entertainment.

The JCL club, sponsored by Mrs. Elmore, consisted of students, grades 9-12, who had taken Latin.
