

There were a few parking lot problems this year. Icy weather lent itself well to skidding autos. Students were cautioned to be more careful in getting in and out of the parking lot. Snowy weather conditions made ideal boot weather. Several times this year school was dismissed early or canceled because of slick roads. Most students didn't object to a day off.

I am not just a number!

No number on a card am I,
No color to be hated yet,
No soldier in the front am I.
My mind is young, untried.

I seek for an identity
In the corridors of knowledge.
My mind-eye is opened to see
In the souls of those like me.

I experiment, I question,
Failing often, floundering--
Afraid to stop, I run
Until destruction of my mind is done.

Can I stop before too late?
Can the damage be repaired?
Only if my fellow man will wait
For me to catch up

Before
Too
Late.

Donnie Moorehouse got out of class long enough to browse for new reading material from the county bookmobile. Many English classes required book reviews from students.
