

Class officers for the freshmen were: Philip Reed, Richard Roe, Dough Perry, Cathy Miles, Loretta Miles, Janet Roe, Sondra Jones, and Barbara Miller.

The freshmen officers worked hard with their class in establishing name for their first year in high school.

This is a recipe for a freshman.

- 1/2 cup spirit
- 2 teaspoons talent
- 3 tablespoons pride
- 1/8 tablespoon courtesy
- 4 cups noise
- 2 teaspoons anticipation

Combine 1/2 cup of spirit and 4 cups of noise in a large container. Add 3 tablespoons of pride, 1/8 tablespoon of courtesy, and 2 teaspoons of talent. Toss in 2 teaspoons of anticipation for good measure. Mix thoroughly over the intense heat of a burning text until bubbling and over-flowing. Then deposit in an energized human body. This is what a freshman at North Putnam consisted of. They were those promptly impetuous people who were so vital in adding to North Putnam that extra dash of the spice of life.

Freshman homecoming candidates, Treya Mattingly and Jeanna Clodfelter smiled happily as they were driven around the football field.
