

The tradition of losing every track meet since the opening of North Putnam was broken this year as the girl's team won two meets. Another first was the participation of the junior high girls who won their meet against South Putnam.