

The National Honor Society, sponsored by Francis McClure, took in several new members this year, both juniors and seniors. As an academic project, the members offered tutoring to all three area grade schools.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Ziegler, the Senior Historical Club learned many interesting historical facts.
