

HOMECOMING '74

Highlighted by Nifty Fifties Day the week before Homecoming churned with activity. Floats were built, court candidates chosen and halls brightly decorated.

Filled with spirited class rivalry, action climaxed at the bonfire where all grades joined in a tug-o'-war, trike race and skit contest. The court candidates were announced. Queen hopefuls were seniors Sandy Redifer, Rhonda Chaplain and Debbie Carey. Junior princess was Denise Gibson while the sophomores chose Cindy Spencer. Mary Webb represented the freshmen.

With the band the class floats and the court paraded before the fans on game night.

Gridders Steve Bullerdick and Rex Call slammed in the first TD in the second quarter. At halftime Sandy Redifer was crowned 1974 Homecoming Queen. The junior high float with its "Eagle Knieval" theme was named winner.

Action picked up quickly during the second half. A punt by Steve McGaughey led to a score by Mike Green with Ernie O'Hair booting in the extra point. The Cougars led 14-0 with 4½ minutes left in the quarter.

In the last period Call and Mike Bullerdick added another TD. Jerry Miller scored to give NP a 33-0 lead. Kelly Sanders and Lester Miles combined to leave the final slate 41-0.

A victory dance with music by "Quo" finalized the Homecoming Week festivities.

