

"I'VE GOT PIECES OF APRIL"

As the end of April approached, the Juniors were making final preparations for the 1975 Prom, "Pieces of April." On the night of May 3, couples entered through a formal garden enhanced by authentic grass and shrubs. The cafeteria was highlighted by a fountain, wishing well, and park scene. Dancing to the music of "Good Day," an atmosphere of springtime hung in the air. Rex Call and Lisa Porter were crowned King and Queen with Tammy Lashley, Sandy Redifer, Brad Ades, and Dirk Wagner reigning as the Royal Court. The post prom was held at C'ville Lanes and breakfast was served in the school cafeteria.

Reigning as King and Queen of North Putnam's sixth annual Prom were Rex Call and Lisa Porter.
