

COMMENCEMENT

In her Valedictory address, Suzanne McGaughey (Rt.) refers to our futures in the job market, and to the varied experiences we will encounter, whatever paths our lives may follow.

Recalling the laughter and sorrow, the work and pranks of maturing students, Salutatorian Cheryl Danberry (Bottom Rt.) reminisces about our years at North Putnam.

Cindy Zenor (who ranked 4th in the class and offered the Benediction), Suzanne McGaughey, Cheryl Danberry, and Rhonda Chaplain (Class President) listen to 3rd ranked Gregg Wilson as he delivers the Invocation at our graduation ceremony.

The Rev. Leo Schmidt, of the Roachdale Presbyterian Church, conveys his thoughts about the significance of our class motto and how its meaning can be applied to our lives.
