

110 In The Shade

110 IN THE SHADE is the story of a small town that comes to life at the hands of a traveling con man. Drought-stricken, Three Point citizens are easily persuaded by Bill Starbuck (Jon South) to finance his plans for making rain. Only spinsterish Lizzie Curry (Lori Hetrick) is skeptical of his promises.

Lizzie's father (Ben Giltz) and her brothers (David Shonkwiler and Jeff Schubert) have arranged a somewhat successful romance with Sheriff File (David Sandusky). File, however, balks at marriage.

When the townspeople discover that Starbuck has bilked them, they also find that Lizzie has taken his part. For it is Starbuck who teaches Lizzie how to appreciate herself. This fresh awareness leads Lizzie to radiate new confidence that finally enmeshes File.

Supported by Paula Wisener in the role of Snookie and by an enthusiastic chorus, 110 romps across the stage. Spritely music accents the production.

