

Vocational Groups Prepare

OEA is a professional youth club which can help people decide upon their career objective. Eight girls went to state OEA in Indianapolis. Lisa Creviston and Debbie VanHook were in the contest, with Lisa in Bookkeeping 1 and Debbie in Shorthand 2. All attended meetings to elect the new state officers. Row 1: D. Loft (Pres.), M. O'Hair (Vice P.), D. Gibson, C. Livesay, B. Miller, C. Clodfelter (Sec.), P. Wisener; Row 2: L. Clodfelter, P. Lee, D. Brooks, V. Wely (Treas.), J. McCammack, N. Tincher, J. Marcum, L. Creviston, P. Allen; Row 3: T. Cornett, S. Morlan, P. Dean, V. Proctor, J. Staggs, S. Chambers, V. Pipes, T. Blubaugh, B. Skelton, C. Cox, J. White, L. Bee, B. Surber, P. Baldwin, S. Chilcote, T. Ratcliff, G. Shannon, J. Cox, K. Fellin, R. Priest (Rep., His.).

This year the Industrial Arts Club played a part in the construction of a much-needed concessions stand. Also included in the activities of the Industrial Arts Club is open shop. The members are allowed to work on projects after school to meet deadlines. Members of the club are: Row 1: B. Sheets, R. Haulk, K. Ford, D. O'Hair, B. Miles, S. Meanor; Standing: T. Simpson, B. Bock, H. Wood, E. Burnett, L. Wilson, J. Holder, J. Rodgers, K. Brewer, R. Douglas, S. Jones, C. Cope, T. Miles, B. Bills, M. Wood, D. Lane, Mr. Steward (Sponsor).

