The Council's Pizza Contest proved that pizza can be as much fun to make as it is to eat.

The Student Council has spent a busy year sponsoring many projects.

The projects range from a faculty breakfast, helping at the polls on election day to selling candy at football games, carnations on Valentine's Day and baking cookies for the elderly at Christmas.

The Council also sponsored such activities as sock hops, Student Exchange Day, movie night and the posting of monthly calendars.

It was certainly a prosperous year.

John Daniel Tate entertained N.P. students at a highly successful convo.
