

Roman Banquet, Highlight Of Latin Club's Year!

Row 1: G. Noland, C. Miller (v. pres.), L. Sutherlin (pres.), B. Wedemeyer (sec.), T. Heckel, (treas.); Row 2: R. Gentry, J. Crosby, R. Lynn, J. Oliver, J. Smith, J. Libka, L. Wilson, C. Zimmerman, D. Miller, L. Harbison; Row 3: B. Hennon, J. Fordice, R. O'Hair, S. Noland, C. Cox, D. Everts, R. Pickel, M. Smith, M. Smith, B. Bridges, D. Kelly, T. Hetrick; Row 4: L. Harbison, P. Evans, D. Stockton, B. Stoker, M. Fordice, T. McBride, D. McHargue, T. Strader, D. Williams, B. Smith, J. Whitaker, A. Stevens, A. Chilcote, Mrs. Elmore (sponsor); Row 5: D. Weaver, B. Steele, C. McGaughey, J. Sinnet, K. Cook.

The regis is crowned.

The Junior Classical League was active selling concessions at sports events to finance their annual Christmas party and Roman Banquet. At the Christmas party the slaves received an informal initiation and at the Roman Banquet they were formally initiated. Highlighting the banquet were Mark Kays playing his banjo, and Tricia Hetrick singing the "Lord's Prayer" in Latin.

The slaves in servitude to banquet guests.