

Adiós North Put, Hóla Mexico

A Spanish "fiesta," eating at El Matador in Indianapolis and taking a trip to old Mexico was on the North Putnam's Spanish Club's agenda.

There were eight students that visited Mexico. While in Mexico, they visited Mexico City, Cuernavaca, Taxco, and Acapulco. They saw the Ancient Aztec Pyramids, government buildings, the Cathedral, floating gardens, and University City. Each student enjoyed the bronze tan that they received from Acapulco's penetrating sun.

The entire trip proved to be educational as well as enjoyable. Each Spanish student took home memories that he will never forget.

The "gringos" visiting Mexico were C. Schubert, D. Harris, Mrs. Gottschalk, K. Hogan, K. McAfee, C. Green, K. Little, L. Wallace, T. Bryan, and C. Clodfelter.

Officers are Connie Green, Sec.; Mary Bock, Treas; Steve Baker, V. Pres.; and Elaine Oney, Pres.
