

aspect. The weather, unlike the previous year, was outstanding. The week preceding the game saw the school spirit rise to a fever pitch and a large crowd turned out to witness the game. Kathy Greene was crowned queen during halftime ceremonies. She reigned as the Cougars crushed the South Putnam Eagles 41 to 6.

The sirens were kept busy as they celebrated each Cougar touchdown.

The Cougar defense smothers Eagle runner.

