

Members of the Royal Court were D. McGaughey, D. Harris, T. Bryan, K. Hartman, K. Roberts, T. Robbins, and A. Fowler.

Servers were J. McCammack and T. Sanders.

The theme of this year's prom was "Knights in White Satin." The junior class put in a lot of time and effort to make it the best prom ever. The music was supplied by disc jockey Mike O'Brien of WNDE—WFBQ.

The junior class chose Kevin Hartman to reign as King and Karen Roberts as Queen. Other members of the court were David McGaughey, Troy Bryan and David Harris. Members of the Queen's Court included Kathy Tyler, Tanya Robbins and Anita Fowler.

This year the Post Prom was sponsored by the junior and senior parents. It was held at school and lasted from 12:30 to 4:30 a.m. The Cafeteria was changed into a casino and the home-ec. room was changed into a pizza and ice cream parlor. The band room was changed into a disco and the gym into a mini-olympics.

There were many events engaged between the juniors and the seniors such as the tug-o-war and the Volkswagon squeeze. There were many door prizes given away throughout the evening with such prizes as cameras, radios, games and gift certificates.

At the end of the night two colored TV's were given away to Tom Strader and Kim Steagall. It was an enjoyable evening for all those who attended.
