

OEA Spends Busy Year

The members of the Office Education Association (OEA) are pictured Row 1: J. Baker, B. Wood, J. McGuire, K. McBride, T. Barnhart, T. Robbins, S. Gentry; Row 2: M. Bainaka, L. Harbison, D. Hutcheson, C. Fischer, L. Curran, J. Cox; Row 3: Mrs. Veronica Cook (sponsor), C. Southern, D. Chandler, T. Robbins, D. Henderson, P. Bock, J. Copner; Standing: J. McCammack, S. Dodd, Jana Twomey, S. Lokey, S. Dodd, M. Drawbaugh, D. Heacock, A. Skinner, T. Ivers, L. Harbison, D. DeBoer, J. Libka, R. Lynn, P. Riddell, J. Smith, A. App, L. Wallace, B. Bell, L. Folck, S. Chilcote, J. Burton, C. Zimmerman, B. Sheets, B. Fogle, S. Keyt, K. Tyler, D. Cash, B. Kruse, J. Melton, D. Henderson, K. McFarland, B. Buchanan, B. Buis, J. Oliver, and S. Wichmann.

OEA OFFICERS

President	Anita Fowler
Vice-President	Tanya Robbins
Secretary	Jeri Smith
Treasurer	Kim McBride
Historian-Reporter	Brenda Wood
Parliamentarian	Tracy Barnhart

Elected OEA District 7 Vice President, senior Dena Hutcheson says highlights of the year were attending the Eastern Regional OEA Conference in Knoxville, Tennessee, in January, and the National OEA Conference in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in April.

