

OEA Monopolizes Your Future

Row 1—A. App, J. Cox, T. Barnhart, L. Curran, J. Copner, D. Henderson, J. McGuire, F. English, T. Sanders; Row 2—C. Funk, P. Crosby, A. Ross, K. Foster, M. Statzer, T. Purvis, M. Zimmerman, H. Johnson, L. Barcroft; Row 3—Mrs. Cook (Sponsor), D. Boller, D. Boswell, T. Hood, J. McCammack, A. Green, D. White, L. Harbison, T. Adams; Row 4—K. Williams, C. Faurote, L. Hughes, S. Lokey, L. Harbison, A. Law, D. McManama, M. Bainaka, J. Smith; Row 5—C. Fischer, T. Ivers, D. Cash, C. Zimmerman, B. Nichols, L. Watson, K. McFarland, J. Melton, K. Witt, J. Smith, J. Libka.

OEA Sponsor, R. Cook, along with Doris Henderson and Tracy Barnhart exhibit their bulletin board after attending State Conference.

OEA had a very busy year, with many active members attending District, State and National Contests. There was an Initiation and Installation Banquet at the beginning of the year.

OEA gave away Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter Baskets to needy people, some members attended State and District meetings. OEA held different holiday parties for the members and guests.

The Bulletin Board was entered at the state level. There were a few members that received Torch Awards.

1980-81 OEA Officers were Tracy Barnhart—Pres., Lisa Curran—V. Pres., Anna App—Sec., Jean Copner—Hist.-Rep., Doris Henderson—Treas., Tracy Sanders—Parl., Jolane McGuire—Jr. V. Pres., Jenny Cox—Soph. V. Pres., Francy English—Fresh. V. Pres.