

Prom-Goers Visit Paradise Island

Doris and Todd reign as Queen and King.

After much anticipation and preparation the night of May 2 finally arrived. At 9:00 men in tuxedos and ladies in their long-sought formals made their way into the gym for the prom. The theme for the 1981 Prom was "Paradise Island". The music was supplied by disc jockeys, Scott Fergeson and Steve Edwards. As each couple entered, they were given leis by the sophomore servers.

A bigger surprise for Todd Heckel and Doris Henderson came later in the evening when they were chosen to reign as King and Queen. Other members of the royal court were Glenn Logan, Kevin Mannix, Chet Clodfelter, Dana Cash, Janie Tippin, and Becky Wedemeyer.

Janice Oliver and Eric Uhls won the dance contest and the twenty dollar prize given by Deckard Studio.

The post-prom was a casino held in the cafeteria. Door prizes were given throughout the night. An enjoyable time was had by all those who attended.

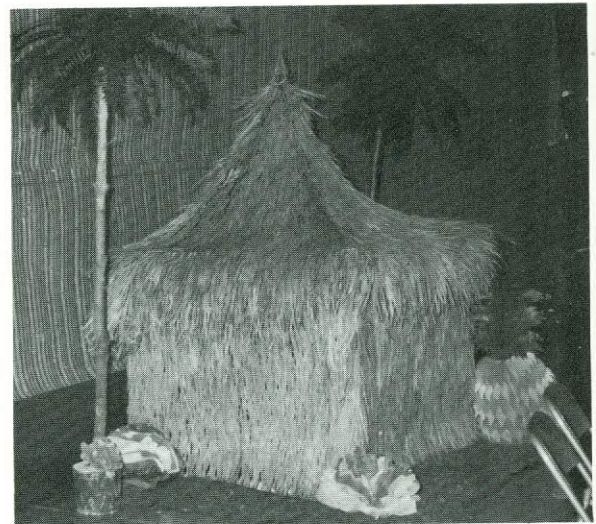

Dancing the night away.

Servers enjoy their first prom.

Let's sit this one out.

Hawaiian grass hut was part of decorations.