Thespians Troupe #1478 presented for the spring musical-"Bye, Bye Birdie." It is a delightful musical-comedy of the problems Albert Peterson (Todd Crosby) encounters when his client, Conrad Birdie (Chet Clodfelter), who is the nation's teenage heartthrob, is being drafted. Rosie (Sarah Noland) devises a plan to make Conrad America's #1 soldier by having him kiss Kim MacAffee (Peggy Evens), a devoted Birdie Fan.

John Thompson helps Ruthie Pickel with her makeup.

Susan Weaver and Susan Wilson as typical teenagers.
