

Vocational School Offers "Working" Alternative

Many North Putnam students took advantage of the opportunity to attend the Area Vocational School at Greencastle. Here they were able to learn about, and participate in, several different skills. Among the vocational choices available were auto mechanics, carpentry and nursing.

Calvin Price does some body sanding.

David McPherson makes a necessary adjustment.

Pam McQueen illustrates a life-saving technique.

Randy Daniel and David McCarty seem to have solved the problem.