

The Night Of Elegance

Prom Night—May 3, 1986—was an exceptional evening of ladies in glamorous dresses and their escorts in stunning tuxedos. The ladies were greeted at the door with a rose and welcomed to "Fantasy Island." The slow dances began soft movements on the floor throughout the night.

Later in the evening everyone gathered around in a circle for the garter ceremony. The ladies faced in to take off the garter and the men faced out and received the garter.

The crowning of the king and queen was the next major event of the evening. All the candidates were lined up on the stage anxiously awaiting the final outcome. They announced Jannetta Sinnet as the Prom Queen and Darren Haler as the Prom King. The Prom Princess was Kelley Bainaka and the Prom Prince was Kevin Harrigan.

After the Prom festivities ended, everyone changed clothes to prepare for the Post Prom given by the students' parents. The theme for the Post Prom was "Hawaiian Beach Party." Entertainment was provided on stage along with numerous door prizes that were provided by local merchants and given out throughout the morning. The activities stopped when the final grand prizes, 2 TV—telephone combinations, were awarded to one lucky junior and one lucky senior. Everyone departed and the 1986 Prom celebration came to a close.
