HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR

Competing for the first time in ten years, the choir had a very successful year. It earned a 1st division in ISSMA's contest for women's choirs. Individuals also did well in the solo and ensemble contest at DePauw earning several 1st and 2nd division ratings.

During the year the choir participated in the Variety Show with some contemporary music and a "Blast from the Past," in the Christmas Concert with a mixture of sacred and secular songs, and at commencement. A small group sang at a Christmas party at Heritage Lake, and several people took part in the musical "South Pacific."

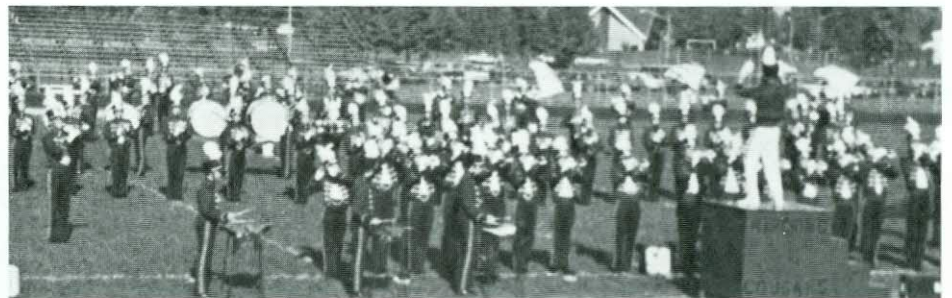

Mrs. Kathryn, choir director, said, "I am really pleased with what the girls have accomplished throughout the year. They have shown continuing improvement. It has been a terrific group to work with, and I am looking forward to next year."

JUNIOR HIGH CHOIR

For the first time in years, North Putnam had a junior high choir. Even though it only consisted of 9 members, it was quite active.

Members performed in the Christmas Concert, the Variety Show, and ISSMA's solo and ensemble contest at DePauw where they did quite well.

Director Mrs. Dory said she was very pleased with what they accomplished and considering that it was their first year, they did extremely well.
