

Knowing the plays for the games is indeed a very important part of being a member of the football team. But unless one's body is in top physical condition, he will not last very long on the playing field. These dedicated Cougars reported for body conditioning before school by 6:30 A.M. as often as four days a week and many continued during the summer until practices began in mid-August. (above) Row 1: Marshall Ward, Andy Fisher, Cory Davies, Brian Miller, Scott Parrish, Brian Cole; Row 2: Kevin Cook, Paul Coldfelter, Travis Nicholson, Chris Hites, Cary McGaughey, Allen Day, Darren Hazlett; Row 3: Chad Wehrman, Chris Gough, Robert Hensley, Mike Smith, Hugh Martin, Bob VanSickle, Eric Robinson, Paul Dixon; Row 4: Tom Boller, Jason Morris, Jeff Smith, Denny Nave, Mike Mitchem, Steve Lindley, John Foley, Jonas Vance, Tony Bryan, Travis Keyt. Supervisors: Coach Rick Malone, far left, and assistant coach Mike White, not pictured.

