

Another special event of the evening was when the young ladies removed their garters and gave them to their beaux (below-left). During the fabulous evening of dancing and merriment, the Sophomores (above) served the often-needed refreshments. To top off a great night, the parents provided a post prom (top) that added much fun and excitement to a special memorable event.

