

The Winter Guard is a group of twelve girls, grades 9-12, who put in long, hard hours of work to perform at various events. Not only do they entertain but they have competed at several contests. This is the first year for the Winterguard at North Putnam and it has been proven a success. On March 18 the Guard competed for a spot in the state finals. In order to compete in the finals they had to place in the top seven of the preliminary round. To their surprise they tied for third place in this round after several months of dedication their season ended with a fourth place finish in the state competition. The Guard is under the direction of Lee Gibson and captain Wendy Martin. Their show was performed to "The Color Purple" and the soloist was Ginger Martin.
