

Ms. Gayle Peacock—Business. "My prerogative is to teach practical skills for life."

Mrs. Betty Job—Business, Social Studies, "My prerogative is to teach students that they need more education to succeed in life."

Mr. John Wilson—Band Chairman, "My prerogative is two-fold anything worth doing is worth doing right and I would like to develop in the students an appreciation of music through performing a wide variety of styles."

Mr. Roger Cook—English Chairman. "My prerogative is to help students prepare for their future."

Mrs. Elaine Chase—English. "My prerogative in teaching is to expose my students to new ideas and to encourage them to avoid thinking superficially."

Mr. Lloyd Blubaum—English, "My prerogative is to help prepare students to face the real world and hopefully feel a little better about themselves."

Mrs. Pat Gottschalk—Spanish. "My prerogative is to try to get students to always do their best and apply this philosophy to their lives after high school."

Mrs. Linda Patrick—Computer Chairman, Science. "My prerogative is to teach students to be more responsible for their actions and be willing to take on responsibilities. Students should take more pride in their work and be more willing to think for themselves. Students should be willing to take on new challenges."

Mrs. Shirley Stewart—Computer, Mathematics Chairman. "My prerogative is to have the students gain an appreciation for and understanding of the mathematical principles."