

Mr. Phil Myers—Physical Education and Health Chairman. "My prerogative in class and in life is to create an understanding of the importance of maintaining good physical and mental health through sports, physical fitness and leading a drug free existence."

Mr. Tom Roach—Physical Education, Social Studies. "My prerogative is to educate students."

Mr. William Brothers—Health, Social Studies. "My prerogative is that students should use their time wisely, because the day will come when they won't have time to waste."

Mr. Kevin Roy—Science, Mathematics. "My prerogative is to teach students to learn."

Mr. Ron Price—Social Studies Chairman. "My prerogative is to teach students to think for themselves and to be curious about the world around them."

Mr. William Bays—Social Studies. "My prerogative is to teach students to accept responsibilities."

Mrs. Lisa Leonard—Librarian. "My prerogative is to teach students to always do the best you can at whatever you are doing."

Tom Miles, Gene McFarland, Marvin Beck, Ted Mason, Jean Poynter, Robert Nelson.

Row 1: Ginny Hughes, Jusy Stockton, Brenda Elliott, Jane Frost, Row 2: Becky Richardson, Connie Shuck, Brenda Kerns, Kathy Fenwick, Row 3: Florence Stockton, JoAnn Culley, Glenda Jackson, Linda Nelson.