

Raising Spirit!

Cheerleading is a lot of hard work, it's being part of a team, it's having to accept responsibility and finding out what responsibility means.

A cheerleader needs enthusiasm and confidence in her ability; because she is leading the crowd, she is the symbol of vitality.

A never ceasing interest, a love and a devotion, a strong will to do for others — cheerleading is an honor, an honor meant to share, regarded as a priceless gift, to create spirit everywhere. A person with high standards, an honor character too, someone who puts herself aside, and lives to support her school, but deeper than this is a feeling, a way of making friends, knowing that you're a leader, giving where life begins. Feeling tense and nervous, laughing and wanting to win, accepting the disappointment of defeat, learning to try once again. Working for many hours, going through stiffness and pains wondering if you can improve, realizing the work it takes. Helping others to know the joy, of working as one. Showing the importance of never giving up until a victory has been won, being proud of the position you hold, caring about your team, facing a world of opportunity, that is what cheerleading means!
