

IN MEMORIUM

Barbara Jean Snodgrass
September 11, 1976 — March 23, 1991

If there ever was a girl who tried,
It was she.

If there ever was a girl who cried,
It was she.

Whenever she felt all alone,
She made sure it never showed.

When your world fell to pieces,
She was there to put it together.

She was always there for you.

She made you laugh when you wanted to cry.

When you felt really low,
She made you feel high.

She came into this world
with a smile on her face.

She left this world with the essence of grace.

Now as we go on,
She is always in our prayers.

Thank you so much Barbie,
You were always there.
