

Other important accomplishments that we did not have pictures for:

Amy Kirk and Carol Strotman attended Lugar Day in Indianapolis December 7.

The Marching Cougars placed third in the State Marching Band Contest held at the Hoosier Dome October 26.

Sophomore Leah Cruz won the Soil and Water Conservation Speech Contest. Kathy McGaughey won the Voice of Democracy Speech Contest.

Mike Jackson placed first at the FFA District Judging Contest.

Jeremy Stockwell solved four of six problems to win the Math League Test.

Suzanne Griffith placed first at the District BPA Contest.

Robert Hodgen advanced to the state competition by winning the district Farmstead Improvement Proficiency.

Jerry Robertson was named district Star Agribusinessman at the District FFA Leadership Contest.

The clarinet choir of Liz Nicholson, Jan Crosby, Suzanne Griffith, Suzanne Jaggars, Bonnie Grimes, and Karen Chadd; and the sax trio of Jeremy Stockwell, Amy Scobee, and Jamie Mason all had Division I ratings at the ISSMA State Contest.

Samantha Brown won the mile run in the Junior High County Track Meet.

North Putnam's Winter Guard placed second in the state competition. (Official group photo appears on page 95.)

English Teacher Lloyd Blubaum was chosen by seniors as the "Teacher of the Year."

These seniors received the privilege of spending time with Governor Evan Bayh during his "City for a Day" in Greencastle. At left is Amie Gregory, Elizabeth Nicholson, Bob Chastain, Amy Scobee, Governor Bayh, Susan Bayh, Bonnie Grimes, Fairle Beaman, Kim Hemmerlein, and Government Teacher Tom Roach.