

"Is the clock in yet?"
 "We're out of napkins!" "More stars?" These phrases were often heard throughout the gym the week of May 3-8. Why this week? Of course, it was prom time.

Every year the junior class has the honor of decorating for the Jr.-Sr. Prom and the class of '93 chose "Till the clock strikes twelve" for the 1992 prom theme.

Mrs. Gottschalk and the junior class did a lot of hard work getting donations, picking out decorations and the hardest thing, but the most fun, decorating the gym.

"Decorating for the prom was so much fun, I'll never forget sitting around gluing, folding things, and talking with everyone. Then we'd all piled into one car and go for some grub. We had a blast!" said Amanda Elliott.

Even though time was short,
 only having one week to get it together, everyone cooperated and had fun making the gym beautiful and the prom a great success.

by Kristi
 McKinney

Aaron Albers
 Adam Barker
 Tiffany Barker
 Donnie Bengé

Amy Boller
 Matt Bowen
 Christine Burton
 Linda Campbell

Danny Capps
 Toni Carnes
 David Christianson
 Christy Clodfelter

Angie Coldiron
 Angela De Vylder
 Jeremy Demoret
 Dan Dreyer

Jason Duncan
 Amanda Elliott
 Jennifer Evans
 Josh Ferry

Debbie Flint
 Kim Ford
 Megan Galford

These juniors take turns decorating the gym for prom.