

Preparations for AAW began in January and continued with weekly meetings in Mrs. Norman's room. Pictured to the left are Lora Ferrand, Karrie Ault, and Amber Riggen who are all working on a banner in Mrs. Chase's room.

Speakers from the Indianapolis area, many of whom were HIV positive, spoke to groups of students in the library. "Most of them were very open about their lives," one student said. Another reacted with a renewed sense of awareness, "It was weird to look in their eyes and imagine that they were going to die soon, and they have no chance (to live)."

Grim Reaper."