

Homecoming

The 1992 Homecoming was unusual for most. Sure, we played a game, decorated the halls, made banners, and had a pep session. Only this year students had to adjust to the game being played away. Due to construction, this year's homecoming game was played at Danville with a disappointing loss to Cascade.

At halftime, after the band performed their marching show, Debbie Flint was crowned the 1992 Homecoming Queen.

"Can this really be happening," says Debbie Flint after being crowned Homecoming Queen.
