

Robert Holder imitates Elvis during his solo performance.

Matt Schreiber sings his solo while the others join in.

Melanie Schreiber, Michelle Day, and Misty Peters point to show enthusiasm for their annual variety show.

The choir is banging on tamborines as they entertained a house full of parents at the variety show.

The group dances until their hearts are content as the basses continue to sing.