

WINTER HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING GIVES WINTER A NEW TOUCH

Homecoming candidates' blood was pumping as they anxiously awaited the moment of truth. Even though the court consisted of all males, they could not wait to find out who would be crowned the new Homecoming King. The decision was a hard one, people had to choose between three very deserving young men. Although the outcome was close, Paul Schubert came away with the title and awards. By Crystal Mudgett

Winter Homecoming Court: Paul Schubert escorted by Amanda Plunkett, Julie Evans escorts Craig Robertson, Cory Clark escorted by Stephanie Cooper, Damien South escorted by Lois DeHoff, Michael Elliott escorted by Amanda Elliott.

Homecoming Queen Charity Boller crowns Paul Schubert, the Winter Homecoming King. The ceremony occurred before the varsity game.

