

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT

Hairstyles are constantly changing, and one only has to look around to see those changes reflected with the different hairstyles worn by students at North Putnam. Pictured on these pages are students wearing some of the latest looks from extremely short to long hair. In all fairness, we didn't give them any warning. Good or bad hair day, we took their picture.

Senior Lyndsey Klein sports a casual look for everyday wear.

Despite the trend to short hair for men, Michael Strotman likes to wear a longer style.
