

BEHIND THE SCENES

Going the Extra Mile

For a lot of students, the day doesn't end with the final bell. Whether they are volunteering their time for a food drive, making signs to raise school spirit, building sets for school plays, decorating for dances and the prom, or many other worthwhile causes, many North Putnam students give up a lot of their free time for the good of their school. While we all benefit from their efforts, they are seldom recognized for their work. Here are a few of the students who went the extra mile.

Billy Crane and Jessica Jarrett work together to decorate the display case.

Carrie Ricketts puts the finishing touches on the set of a play.
