

How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying

By: Jason Lackner

Imagine a window washer who happens to read a self-help book that tells him how to succeed in business, and then goes to a large company to try and make his fortune. He starts out at the bottom working in the mailroom, but quickly works his way to the top, and falls in love in the process. That was the plot for this year's spring musical How to Succeed in Business without really trying.

"It was a lot of fun, but there were a lot of hours too. However, I think this was the best show yet," said Colin Galford who played the part of Bud Frump.

"My character was an airhead secretary who was dating the big boss of the office. This musical was really funny," commented Heather Durham.

"I felt it was a success. Everyone had fun doing it. What made it really special was all the seniors that were in it. We're going to miss them," stated Angela English
