

The pinata was the center of attention at the Christmas party. Blindfolded club members swung at the pinata with a stick until one lucky person broke it spilling out the candy.

Spanish students in Mrs. Gottschalk's class listen to a lesson on headphones.

Mr. King calculates history grades in between classes. He didn't say if the news was good or bad.