

NP Students Give Gift of Life

Nothing To It! Junior Jennifer McCloud manages a smile as her finger is pricked. This scene was repeated many times during the day as many students chose to donate their blood.

Naptime: This Senior found it so painless to give blood that she fell asleep, or did she faint?

