

TRACK

GIRLS' AND BOYS' TEAMS ENDURE RAIN AND COLD

*Freshmen J.T. Crook and Rachel Wagner
Qualify for Regionals*

"This was my first year and I never expected to go to the regionals," said sophomore Pam Runnels.

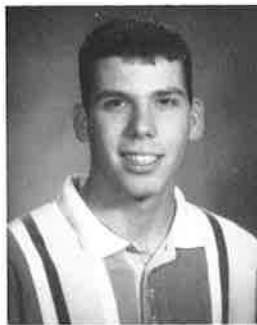

Despite cold, wind and rain most of the season, and young teams, the girls' and boys' track teams still managed to have respectable seasons with J.T. Crooks, Rachel Wagner, and Pam Runnels qualifying for the regionals.

Jason Abernathy pretty well summed up the less than perfect weather conditions that prevailed most of the track season when he said, "This year was fun, but next year I'm going golfing!"

"I was really excited to go to regionals. After all, I was only a freshman."

Rachel Wagner

"It was a wet, windy season, but everything seemed to go ok anyway."

Nathan Bell

Top picture:
Don't Trip! Angie Cote and Ashlee Neier jump over their hurdles at the same time.

Heave Ho! Jacob Harvey strains as he throws the shot put.

