

SINGING &

CONCERT BAND/ CHOIR AND PEP BAND

SWINGING

What do cloggers, singers, flappers, and the Concert Band and Choir have in common? This year's annual Variety Show of Course! The show was held in March in the high school gymnasium. Under the guidance of Ms. Kingsley, the new choir director, and Mr. Pradke, the Variety Show took on a whole new look this year.

"Choir has changed since Ms. Kingsley has come. She has been an inspiration and a role model," said Margaret Ryan.

"Mr. Pradke has brought a personal touch to the band program. He's not just a teacher, he's becoming a friend," stated Brian Rayles.

Roaring 20's Margaret Ryan strikes a pose for the photographer. She was in the choir room during intermission of the Variety Show.

Care to Dance? Jessica Pickerel, dressed as a flapper, dances with COUSIN IT. Actually, it was Clint Hackleman in disguise.
