TEACHERS AND STAFF IMPACT STUDENTS' LIVES

STUDENTS SPEND SEVERAL HOURS A DAY INTERACTING WITH TEACHERS WHO INFLUENCE THEIR LIVES. TWO TEACHERS AND ONE STAFF MEMBER LEFT NORTH PUTNAM THIS YEAR, AND THEY WILL BE MISSED, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN. ON A HAPPIER NOTE, ANOTHER TEACHER LEFT TEMPORARILY, BUT RETURNED TO SHARE HER INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES WITH STUDENTS.

Wrapping it Up: Mr. Steward wraps Chris Brewer's ankle before the start of a football game. Besides teaching classes for thirty-two years, Mr. Steward put in a lot of extra hours as Athletic Trainer for all the sports teams, and if someone had an accident during the day, he took care of that too. Thank you Mr. Steward, and happy retirement!
