

Happy Holidays

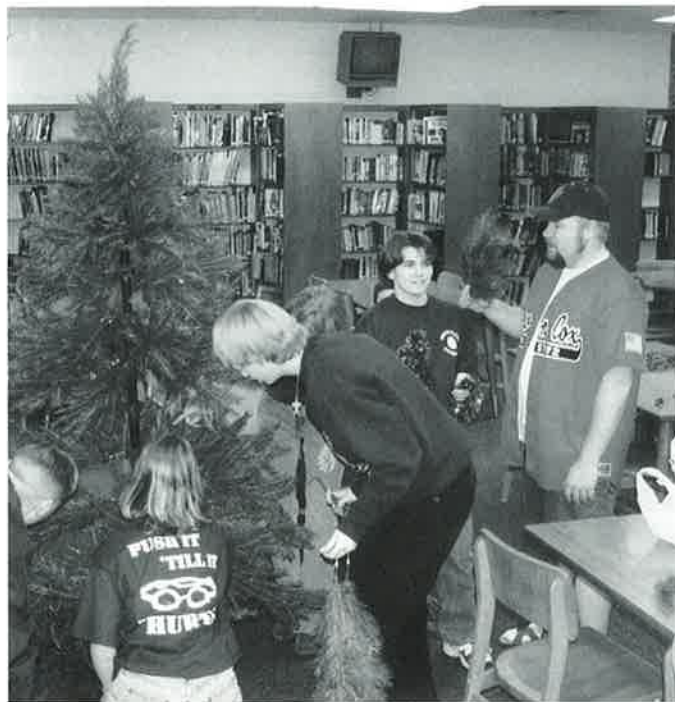

Brrrr!

Sophomore Michael Schreiber attempts to warm his hands as he sets out luminaries. Over 300 lighted luminaries lined the entrance to the Madrigal Dessert.

Spreading Christmas Cheer!

Mrs. Wilson and two Family Relations students decorate the display case. Mrs. Wilson's classes were in charge of changing the display case from season to season.

Rocking Around the Christmas Tree

Student Council members try to follow directions as they assemble the tree. Decorating the Library Christmas tree is an annual tradition for council members.

LET'S EAT!!

TV Class staff members place candles on their Christmas Cake. They were celebrating one semester of producing successful shows.
