

P.E. Health

Tipsy Turvy: Ryan Hill participates in an experiment on what it looks and feels like to be intoxicated. State trooper Steve Hibler supervised the experiment during Mr. Hopkin's Health class.

Did They Make it? Freshman P.E. students look on as some of their fellow students attempt to make a jump. Going outside during class on a nice day was one of the advantages of P.E.

Student Teacher From DePauw Takes Over Teaching P.E.

Mr. Stigall, a student teacher from DePauw, did his student teaching at North Putnam under the supervision of Mr. Myers. He was a senior and played football for the DePauw Tigers. All of his P.E. students at NP wish him well in his future teaching career.
