

Memories and Embarrassing Moments

Laura Nicholson's Best Memory: My Freshmen year at a dance after the North Vermillion game was the best time of my life. I got to dance with the cutest guy in school...David Schubert. The song was "On Bended Knee" by Boyz II Men. I will never forget that. It was WONDERFUL!!!

Aaron Riggles Most Embarrassing Moment: In ninth grade, I was walking down to accept my Perfect Attendance Award (as if that wasn't embarrassing enough) and I tripped and fell down the bleachers landing on someone.

Toby Braeger's Best Memory: My best memory would have to be during the 1997 football season when I got an interception against Owen Valley, and ran it 108 yds for a touchdown only to realize that they had called pass interference on me. It would have been a state record, but it is still a good memory.

Joni O'Hair's Most Embarrassing Moment: Toby Braeger thought it would be soooo hilarious to depants me my freshman year down by the water fountain near the T.V. room. I didn't think it was too funny.

Kristin Clahan's Best Memory: I was in Foods Class and our kitchen was making fruit pizza. The recipe asked for 1 cup of sugar. So, Aaron Riggle got the sugar out but it didn't look like sugar. So, when I tasted it, It tasted salty and Aaron took it to Mrs. Wilson and told her that we had salt instead of sugar. Mrs. Wilson looked at it and told Aaron that it wasn't salt, it was laundry detergent.
