

Shania Twain launched her recording career five years ago. She has become one of the top selling female singers in the U.S., selling almost 17 million albums worldwide.

Sean "Puffy" Combs, also known as Puff Daddy, moved up the ranks at Uptown Records, soon forming his own label "Bad Boy Entertainment."

Mark McGwire battled with Sammy Sosa for the home-run record of 61, set in 1961. The right-handed hitter from the St. Louis Cardinals won the home-run record with 70. Sosa ended the season with 66 home-runs.

The Denver Broncos defeated the Atlanta Falcons 34-19, during the 33rd Super Bowl. John Elway stole the record of 145 passes, changing it to 152. Elway won his second consecutive Super Bowl in a row, as well as holding on his decision to retire.

Smashing Pumpkins began in 1988 and by 1993 released multimillion selling "Siamese Dream." They recently won an MTV Video Music Award.