

"Marching season this year was a time to get to know the students. I felt the band worked hard and we came together as a cohesive group."

Mr. Knott
Band Director

"Marching season was an enjoyable time for me. I was introduced to a new and great group of kids. It was also great to work with Mr. Knott again."

Mr. Snoddy
Asst. Band Director

"The marching season served as a great opportunity for the color guard to explore new styles of equipment, work, and dance skills. The girls did a great job."

Mr. Lee Gibson
Color Guard Director
